CANNOT PREVAIL.

So Say Two German Travelers, of the Spanish.

WEYLER HURRIES BACK.

Insurgents Display Too Much Activity Near Havana.

GOMEZ WELL PREPARED FOR WEYLER.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 5.—Dr. William Dannel and Herr Arthur Thielheim, of Hamburg, who have been touring the world as correspondents of leading German journals since the 1st of April, 1895, have arrived from Havana, which place they left last Saturday. For the last four months these gentlemen have been in Cuba watching the progress of the revolution.
They have traversed the island from east to west and from north to south, going into the camps of both the insurgents and the Spaniards.
They talked with the leaders of both sides with a view of obtaining the truth of the situation.

According to Dr. Dannel and Herr Thielheim, the reports of Spanish atrocities, as published in the newspapers of the United States are not overdrawn.

"Spain is not waging war, as the word is understood by civilized nations," said Dr. Dannel, "but is engaged in systematic butchery of non-combatants in Cuba. Of course the Spaniards kill the insurgents when they can, but frequently the royal troops are engaged in burning the homes of pacificos and murdering the lunatics. During our stay in Cuba we spent two weeks in the Province of Pinar del Rio, and every day gathered evidence that the Spaniards are killing non-combatants. We were in Armenta during the massacre of Christians by the Kurils, but we witnessed no more horrible scenes in that country than we saw in Pinar del Rio. In one hamlet, about ten miles from Armenta, which we visited immediately after a Spanish raid, we saw the corpses of twelve old men, thirteen women and eight children.
All had been killed by the machete.
The Spanish officers do not conceal the fact that they intend to murder all non-combatants and desolate the country rather than to allow the insurgents to triumph. They seem to have an idea that the United States will finally intervene, and their object is apparently to render the intervention as difficult as possible by making a desert of the time such intervention is made. Col. San Martin, commanding in Pinar del Rio, expressed such views to us. He also said that during the campaign in Pi-nar del Rio the Spaniards had killed about 3,000 pacificos. Asked as to the number of insurgent soldiers killed in the province, Col. San Martin said: "Oh, about 1,200 since the campaign began. We would have killed more, but the pacificos are hard to catch. However, our policy of desolating the country will eventually destroy the insurgent armies."

Dr. Dannel and Herr Thielheim do not believe that Spain will ever put down the rebellion. They say that Weyler's claim that Pinar del Rio and Havana Provinces have been pacified is ridiculous. Dr. Dannel asserts that there are now no less than 3,000 armed insurgents in Pinar del Rio, in splendid trim for fighting and giving the Spaniards a great deal of trouble. They say the policy of the rebels is not to meet the enemy in even combat. There are more mountain ranges running more or less parallel from east to west the full length of the island. The insurgents intrude themselves at convenient points along these and station three distinct lines of pickets all around, one in advance of the other, the outer line being more than a mile from the main encampment. When a Spanish column approaches, the signal is given by firing, and everything in camp is ready to be moved.
When the Spaniards come in sight the Cubans fire and disappear. The population of the interior is in favor of the insurgents, and often give important information regarding the movements of the enemy. Where people have obeyed Weyler's orders and come within the Spanish lines there is much suffering. He has paraded out the lands for three miles around, or as far as the ground can be covered by field pieces, and on these small areas hopes to produce crops to keep the people in his lines from starving.

Dr. Dannel and Herr Thielheim assert that there can be no end to the war so long as 500 insurgents are in the field. They confirm the statement of Senator-elect Money, of Mississippi, who recently visited Cuba, concerning the resources of the island for maintaining an army. They conclude that Spain ought to grant authority to Cuba under the guarantee of the United States, for they say that neither the Spaniards or Cubans are capable of governing the country except under the direction of some power like the United States.

WEYLER'S FUTILE EFFORTS.

To Entrap Gomez—Insurgents Still Active In Pacified Pinar del Rio.

It is not believed in Havana that Weyler will be able to force Gomez into a general engagement unless the latter is willing. It is thought that Gomez will endeavor to lead the Spaniards far into the hills and then strike a deadly blow. It is said that Gomez has known that Weyler intended to advance for some time, and has had the route over which the Spaniards must march honeycombed with dynamite mines.

The insurgents in Pinar del Rio are still dynamiting trains there.
Weyler claims the province is pacified. Tuesday morning a military train left San Cristobal. At a civert near Taco Taco, the engine struck three dynamite bombs, and a terrible explosion followed. The engine, armored car and three other cars were torn to fragments. Six civilians, the Captain of volunteers and twelve soldiers were killed outright.
The engineer and fireman were mortally wounded and thirteen soldiers were also injured.
The wreck took fire and two of the wounded were cremated. The insurgents who planned the explosion secured a quantity of arms and ammunition.

The insurgents will never accept the reforms Spain will offer. An emissary from Castille's insurgent camp was in Havana yesterday, and he says the Cubans are determined to accept nothing save independence.
He says Castillo has 1200 well-armed men near Havana, and is preparing to raid the suburbs of the city.
Marcos Garcia, the renegade Cuban, commissioned by the government to attempt to bribe Gomez to leave the island, has decided that it would cost him his life to visit the insurgent chief on such an errand, and has written the Marquis de Alu-nada, declining the commission.

QUEEN REGENT SIGNS.

The Cuban Reform Bill—Its Reforms Amount to Little.

Madrid, Feb. 5.—The Queen Regent yesterday signed the plan for the reforms in the island of Cuba. The text of the document will be published on Saturday.

The scheme includes numerous and elaborate decrees and will occupy several pages of the official gazette. It is understood that the reforms consist chiefly in the creation of an assembly, to be called the Council of Administration, composed of thirty-five members, of whom twenty-one are to be elected by the people and six by the different corporations. The remainder will be one magistrate, one university professor, one archbishop and five former Senators or Deputies.

The Council of Administration is empowered, firstly, to prepare a budget. Secondly, to examine into the fitness of officials appointed.
Thirdly, to make a tariff subject to the condition of Spanish imports having advantages over the general tariff.

The Governor General will represent the home Government and will have the right to nominate officials, who should be Cubans or Spaniards who have resided two years in Cuba.
Nevertheless, he may freely nominate high functionaries such as magistrates prefects, etc.

BACK HE GOES.

Weyler Will Return to Havana on Account of Insurgent Raids.

Key West, Fla., Feb. 4.—It is rumored in Havana tonight that Gen. Weyler will return to Havana soon, because the frequent raids made in Havana Province have alarmed him. It is no secret in Havana that the Spanish officials are uneasy over the appearance of Gen.
Rivera in that Province, and the possibility of his striking a blow at the capital himself has generally alarmed them all.
Marquis Alunada has consequently been in close touch with Weyler.
Gen. Rivera had a skirmish with a troop of Col. Delome's cavalry fifty miles northwest of Havana Tuesday, and defeated the Spaniards. No details have been allowed to escape, and the censorship has been increased the past fortnight.

Spaniards Do Not Like Them.
London, Feb. 4.—A dispatch to the St. James "Gazette" from Madrid published this afternoon says that the Cuban reforms made public have created a bad impression, being regarded as inclined too much to Cuba.

Refuse to Flee.

Madisonville, Ky., Jan. 5.—The Populist county committee has passed adversely on all propositions for fleeing, and say they will stick to the middle of the road and fuse or combine with no party.

JUDGE M'KENNA.

The Californian Is Announced as Secretary of the Interior.

TWO NATIONAL BANKS FAIL.

Dr. Hunter Denies He Has Been Offered Federal Pies.

AN ILLEGAL TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT.

Canton, Feb. 5.—Judge McKenna, of California, has been announced as Secretary of the Interior in President-elect McKinley's cabinet. This removes another doubtful factor from the way of St. John Boyle, of Kentucky, for Attorney General.

Accidentally Killed.

Ashland, Ky., Feb. 5.—While out hunting yesterday, John Higgins, a popular citizen was killed by the accidental discharge of his gun. Particulars are meagre, as there was no eye witness to the shooting.

Hermann's Home Factory Burns.

Tell City, Ind., Feb. 5.—Herm-mann's home factory of this city, was destroyed by fire last night, entailing a loss of $10,000, and throwing sixty hands out of employment.
The insurance is $16,000.

Hanna Will Not Be Appointed.

Cleveland, Feb. 5.—Careful inquiry by a representative of the Associated Press among the more influential friends and political advisers of Mr. M. A. Hanna today, developed the fact that there is good ground for the reports that have been in circulation during the past few days to the effect that the national chairman will not be appointed to fill the place of Senator John Sherman in the United States Senate.

Two National Banks Fail.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—The first National Bank of Franklin, Ohio, and the Northwestern National, of Great Falls, Montana, have failed.
The first has a capital of $100,000 and average deposits of near $150,- 000. The latter has capital of $250,- 000 and average deposits of $750,000.

Illegal Term of Court.

Cannelton, Ind., Feb. 5.—It has been discovered that the last term of the circuit court held in this city was illegal and the acts of the entire week's session are void of no effect. It may be that magistrates convicted at that term will have to be released from custody.

Two Business Men Drowned.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—While skating on the lake this morning the ice gave way beneath them and Wallace Harrison and Charles Lingquist, prominent young business men were drowned.

Enoch Wright, III, and His Wife, Aged 99, Die in Tennessee.

Middlesboro, Ky., Feb. 5.—In Chalbourne, county, Tenn., Enoch Wright, aged 101 years, and his wife, Eliza, aged 99 years, died yesterday just two hours apart.
They were buried in the same grave and same coffin.

They were married seventy-six years ago. Grippe was the cause of their death. Mr. Wright was a "died-in-the-wool" Democrat. He cast his first vote for Monroe in 1820.
He was an inveterate tobacco chewer and for ninety years took his morning dram. He received his second sight about five years ago, and his wife could read by lamp-light. Their descendants number about 200.

Nothing in It.

Dr. Hunter denies in toto the story that his conference with McKinley was for the purpose of arranging a place for him in consideration of his withdrawal from the senatorial race.
The Doctor says:

Washington, Feb. 5.—"The story that I was to be offered the place of Internal Revenue Commissioner or any other position under the incoming administration to remove me from the senatorial fight in Kentucky is absolutely false," said Representative Rodney Hunter. "President-elect McKinley is well aware and was aware before I went to Canton that I did not want any position, and that I was and am a candidate for Senator from Kentucky. I expect to remain a candidate until an election is held."

GEN. POWELL CLAYTON

Shall Be Stated for Minister to Mexico.

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 5.—The Hon. H. M. Remmel, of this city, late Republican candidate for Governor of Arkansas, is authority for the statement that Gen. Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, will be the next United States Minister to Mexico, succeeding the Hon. W. M. Ramsom.

OLIVER'S LATEST.

He Is Again In Trouble in Metropolis.

NOW IT'S CRIMINAL ASSAULT.

His Alleged Victim Is Mary Jane Linn—Alford Being Guarded.

EXAMINING TRIAL SET FOR TODAY.

Oliver Allard, one of Paducah's well known erstwhile citizens, was lodged in jail at Metropolis yesterday afternoon late on a warrant charging him with attempted criminal assault upon the twelve year old daughter of Jim Linn, of Brooklyn. The arrest has created a greater furor in Mas-sac county than Allard's other notarious trials and tribulations of the past several months.

A colored man who works for Allard and transacts all his business for him was in the city yesterday and stated that about three months ago Allard, while intoxicated, went to Linn's residence and asked to stay all night. Linn had been employed on the Allard farm for about a year, working for him for all he was worth, according to reports.

Allard was allowed to stay all night on the occasion mentioned above, and if reports are true he was permitted to occupy the same bed with the girl. Linn then began extorting money from him by intimidation and threat until Allard finally resigned to longer be imposed upon.

Yesterday Linn went to Metropolis and swore out a warrant against Allard, charging him the offense above, and he was arrested by Jim and Enoch Linn and taken to Metropolis on the Cowling, where he was committed to jail.

KIDNAPED A MILLIONAIRE.

A Minneapolis Real Estate Man Suddenly Disappears.

His Frequent Heavy Drifts Lead to Investigation.

Montreal, Feb. 5.—The police report a queer story of the alleged kidnapping and imprisonment in this city of a man named Richardson, supposed to be an American millionaire from the northern part of New Hampshire. There came to Montreal some time ago a couple, who announced themselves as Mr. and Mrs. Stanton, of New York. "We was with them a slight, dark man, about fifty years old, who was never allowed to leave the fashionable house where they lived, or to see any one who by chance should call. This man was Richardson, the American millionaire.

It is said he was always kept under the influence of a powerful drug, and in this semi-rational condition his captors forced him to write checks for large sums of money. An agent of the millionaire came here about two weeks ago to find him. The police say this agent saw the Stanton's, but they had their victim well hidden, and told the agent they knew nothing about him. The trio disappeared a few hours before the detectives finally decided to search the house. The detectives are divided in their opinion as to where the mysterious trio have gone. The police say Stanton's real name is Frazier and that he is an ex-Methodist preacher, formerly of the New York conference.

WANT TO PLAY BALL.

A Challenge Received By Local Base Ball Managers.

The Cincinnati Reds have forwarded a challenge to the managers of Paducah's projected base ball team for a match game of ball, but no definite response can yet be made, because developments are not far enough advanced in the organization.
Probably a game will be arranged about April 7.

There are yet several matters to settle before the local club is an assured thing, one of which is the location of the "diamond." Final details of the league will be made at Evansville Saturday at a meeting of the stockholders, which will be attended by the local managers.

A LARGE CROWD.

Attended Hon. J. T. Wilson's Funeral Today.

The funeral of the late Honorable Joseph T. Wilson took place this forenoon at 10 o'clock from the family residence on South Fourth street, Rev. H. B. Johnson, of the Broadway M. E. church, conducting the services. The interment was at Oak Grove. A large crowd was present at the obsequies. Mr. E. R. Wilson, brother of the deceased, arrived yesterday.

MANY OFFENDERS.

Trouble Investigated by Judge Sanders Today.

TWO WHITE OFFENDERS.

William McGregor is Guilty of a Very Indiscreet Act.

SEVERAL FINES IMPOSED TODAY.

Judge Sanders was confronted by a big docket this morning when he set his big day in the dock and opened his prayer book.

All the defendants were colored with but one or two exceptions.

William McGregor is the name of an Irishman who applied at the Mineral Well Hotel, on South Fourth, for work about three months ago. This morning he wound up in high dudgeon and the police court, on a charge of entering the bed room of Proprietor B. W. Weston at 4 o'clock this morning, taking off his coat and loudly announcing his intention to "do Mr. Weston up." He claimed when the case was called that he had been grossly wronged by Mr. Weston, and was lined $10 and costs. As he walked back to the prisoners' dock he gave one look towards Mr. Weston, but that was sufficient to prompt the latter to make immediate application for a peace warrant. McGregor will work on the streets several days, however.

Dave Pittman, John Douglass and Fannie Wright attended a ball at the colored Old Fellows' Hall night before last and as Pittman was with another girl the Wright women started trouble. They were all arrested and Pittman was fined $5 and costs while the other cases were dismissed.

Thomas Wright is the name of an aged farmer from the county who came to the city yesterday and fell by the wayside. When Judge Sanders expressed sympathy for having to fine him he remarked that he didn't expect to get something for nothing, so his drunk cost him $1 and costs. His horse and wagon were left at Iselman's livery stable, and the old fellow, whose head was badly hurt by a fall, said that his wife wouldn't know what to think of him.

Ben Trice, colored, was arrested last night by Officer Sencer on suspicion. A pistol was found under his coat, vest and sweater. He was arraigned this morning in Judge Sanders' court and said he wanted to send for his brother, but Judge Sanders didn't deem the excuse ample for a continuance, hence the defendant was fined $25 and given ten days in jail.

Lou Moss and Ella Munn were sent to the lockup this morning for ten days. At the expiration of that time they will go to jail for six months. The two women and Tandy Reeves and George Winfrey were charged with a breach of the peace. Reeves was fined $10 and costs.

The case against "Red" Hubbard, charged with malicious assault, was again continued in the police court yesterday afternoon.

Will Foster, the Mayfield witness, arrived at 3 o'clock, but when the case was called it was learned that Mr. Clark was ill and could not attend.

The trial was postponed until tomorrow, but by agreement Dr. Elliott, conductor Blaney and Mr. Foster were allowed to give their testimony. Dr. Elliott testified relative to the nature of the wounds, Conductor Blaney to a scuffle he saw and Foster that Mr. Clark knocked him down in the union depot lunch room, but whether it was with his fist or elbow or purposely or by accident he could not say. When he first entered the lunch room he heard someone say, "Clear out all these bums!" Major Harris is special judge in the case.

OLD MAIL CARRIER

And Soldier Goes to His Last Reward.

Death of James P. Bell, Formerly of the City, at the Soldiers' Home.

Mr. James P. Bell, aged 65, died night before last at the Soldiers' Home, Quincy, Ill., after a lingering illness.

The deceased will be remembered by a great many of the older residents of Paducah, for he was a familiar personage here between the years 1867 and 1886.

He was a soldier in Company D., 7th Regiment Illinois Volunteers, in which company he enlisted in 1861, at Cairo, and with which he was mustered out July 22, 1865, having served four years. He went to Metropolis in 1867, and soon afterwards married Mrs. Mary West, mother of Mrs. Alice Lassiter, of that city. In 1867 he was awarded the contract of mail carrier between Metropolis and Paducah. Regularly every day for nearly ten years he carried the mail between these points, making the trips in a skiff. Judge B. O. Jones' first trip to Metropolis was made from Paducah in Bell's skiff.

Three years ago he went to the Soldiers' Home, where he resided up to the time of his death.

GRAIN ELEVATOR.

The Illinois Central Wants to Build One.

WILL ASK RIGHT OF WAY.

Up First Street and up Second From Clark to the N. C. & St. L.

MAY PROVE A GREAT ADVANTAGE.

The Illinois Central Railroad company if it succeeds in its plans will shortly make a valuable addition to the city of Paducah in the form of a large grain elevator. At the next meeting of the council, the company, through its attorneys, will make application for right of way through the city over the following route: From the Union depot down to the river front, thence to First street, and up First to the Three Rivers Mills, thence diagonally across to Second and Clark streets and up Second to Tennessee, to connect there with the N. C. & St. L. railroad.

The company owns most of the property down in that locality, including what is known as the "Old River Front," and desires to utilize it.

The advantages that would likely accrue to the city are manifold. The grain elevator is to be located somewhere near the old mill, and will be used for transferring the grain from steamboats, directly over from the boat into the cars.

There are many tributaries that will thus be open to Paducah that have always been closed. Business and trade and patronage will flow where there are the greatest facilities and inducements, and much of the cereals that now go to places up and down the river would then be brought directly to Paducah for transportation over the railroad, instead of being carried to Nashville, Evansville and Cairo.

There will be other advantages also to be derived. The railroad running through the business center would probably prove an inestimable boon to merchants in the reduction of costs of transportation.

The transportation of merchandise always constitutes an important item in the price, and it would perhaps save them many a dollar, which would proportionately reduce the price to be paid by the consumer.

This information is not surmise or conjecture, but cold facts, fully verified, and the application for right of way will be made at the next meeting of the council.

It is rumored that the Illinois Central also contemplates adding other industries to Paducah.

Supt. Harahan is in the city today completing the plans of the above projected improvement.

YOUNG PHILLIP BAUGH.

Who Recently Disappeared From Mayfield.

Now Said to be Both An Embezzler and Forger.

Phillip Baugh, whose mysterious disappearance from Mayfield Sunday created no little excitement in that city has never been heard of, and will perhaps never return. It has been discovered that he had greater reason to leave than at first suspected.

He is a young man who had lived there since childhood. He married about eight years ago, but lately got a divorce from his wife and two or three weeks ago she married again. This is thought by some of his friends to be the cause of his hasty departure. It has developed, however, that he is $1000 or $1200 short and that he had forged a check on Sanders, Morris & Co., one of the leading dry goods firms of here, for $65. Whisky and cards seem to have had a part in his downfall. He went south from Mayfield and has perhaps gone to Texas or some other distant state. Baugh's father counted suicide at Mayfield about fifteen years ago, his mother went to the land and a sister also took her own life. It is considered more than probable that young Baugh will wind up his earthly career in the same manner, if he has not already done so, as he has been low spirited of late.

THIRD TRIAL.

The Boatwright Damage Suit Up Again.

Each the Plaintiffs and the Defendant Has Won the Case.

The case of Mrs. Fannie Boatwright against the Paducah Electric company for $5000 entered into its third trial today.

The suit was brought for alleged damage to the plaintiff's home on North Fourth street by the jarring produced by the defendant's machines.

The first verdict was in favor of the plaintiff for $300, and the defense secured a new hearing.

The next trial resulted in a verdict for the defendant, and the plaintiff secured a new trial, which began today.

A PROMINENT MAN.

Was Hon. J. T. Wilson, Who Died Here Yesterday.

One of the Finest Legislators and Criminal Lawyers of Missouri.

Hon. Joseph T. Wilson, who died here yesterday and whose funeral took place today, was one of the most distinguished men of Southern Missouri. He had resided in Paducah for several weeks, but little was known of him because he was ill and unable to be out.

The deceased was born in Springfield, Mo., May 26, 1850, and his family moved to McCracken county when he was a boy, afterwards to Mississippi county, Mo., where Mr. Wilson studied law. His sister was married here to Dr. T. E. White.

The deceased was married at Charleston, Mo., on April 14, 1877, to Miss Emma Kendrick, and at Clayton, Mo., he served as prosecuting attorney for two or three terms. In Dunklin county he was elected to the Missouri legislature, and was subsequently chosen state senator, but deemed it advisable to resign on account of ill health.

He was sent to St. John's Hospital in St. Louis in October, and no operation was performed on him, blood poisoning resulting. Mr. Wilson was known all over Missouri, and in addition to his reputation as a legislator he was one of the best criminal lawyers in Missouri. He was an intimate friend of Attorney R. T. Lightfoot, of the city.

The crystal palace at Sydenham is capable of holding a greater number of people than any other building in the world. More than 100,000 can be accommodated within its walls.

It is proposed in England to extend a cable to Lonely St. Helena, Napoleon's prison island, not for commercial advantages, but for the curious fact that a foreign power might quietly seize the island and secure the incoming mail steamer as a prize of war.

German explorers in New Guinea, Dr. Lauterbach, Dr. Kersting and Herr Tappenbeck, discovered in October at the foot of the Bismarck mountain a navigable stream flowing through a fruitful and thickly-populated plain, over which they traveled for 300 miles. This is the first well-populated area that has been discovered in the interior of New Guinea.

A queer case of "beatenbelldogging," the insulting of officials, came up recently in a Berlin police court. A stone man was ordered by a police lieutenant to remove some stones from the highway. He answered in a loud voice that he would do so. The lieutenant objected to the tone of the answer and arrested him. At the trial the man pleaded that he had used his natural voice, and the court refused to fine him, but reprimanded him for behaving insultingly.

YELLOW PREVAILS.

Nature's Favorite Autumnal Tint Is Much In Vogue.

Yellow is a favorite color this season. Solvingshadowing that it is the hue of jealousy, of decadent literature, of billowiness and other unpleasantness, the American woman has decided that she will wear yellow this autumn and winter. You may see yellow velvet, silks, cloths and other fabrics in the store windows, and inside on the counters, you may find many, many more. The merchant, seeing the popularity of this color, has quite made up her mind that she wants some certain thing, there it is in the stores ready to her hand.

It is not only in dresses and linings of mantles that the Chinese hue will be found. It will appear in millinery in many shapes and shades. Ribbons are as easily made of yellow as of any other color, and feathers and laces can be yellowed with equal facility. There will be many shades and each shade will have a different name, distinctive and generally odd. The men and women who prepare new styles are ingenious and can think of all kinds of designations for variation of the same color. So we have "old colonial lemon," "tip of the canary's wing," "crushed lemon," "autumn leaf," "bittern," "brimstone," "old ivory," "golden sand," "golden rod," and dozens of others. Most of these shades are attractive, and none is downright ugly, so long as one likes yellow at all. It is a peculiarity of yellow that certain shades of it can be worn by either blondes or brunettes. The rich effect of yellow in conjunction with dark hair and bright brunette complexion, is understood by everyone. But it is a new thing to many blondes to learn that these are shades of yellow that are most becoming to their complexion. It is the intention to use yellow a great deal in connection with blue, in dresses and hats of yellow. It is a pretty combination, this autumn, showing up bright and distinctive against a dark brown background.

Among other directions in which yellow will be the dominant color must be mentioned luncheons and teas. There will be yellow luncheons and yellow teas. The chattering of yellow lamp shades, and yellow ribbons setting off the pure white napery of well-appointed luncheons can be imagined. It will be even better than the pink, which has so long held sway at these functions. On a dark afternoon, too, yellow decorations will lighten up a room almost as much as the rays of sunshine.
